

For over 50 years Worldwide Marriage Encounter (WWME) has helped millions of couples throughout the world unlock the power of their relationships.

Every relationship is a journey. Everyday life can cause you to lose touch with your spouse.

When we take our closest relationship for granted throughout the grind of everyday life, we fall into unconscious habits, which often neglect the importance of being a close couple.

"The Weekend made our marriage come alive. It has brought so much fun back into our lives that Marriage Encounter has become a part of our lives". Paul & Marie

"Getting away from the hustle and bustle of our work lives, our family lives and giving us time just for ourselves". Simon & Natalie

"Our Weekend was very special for us. It helped me to understand you and to get to know you better. An opportunity to revive something magical about our relationship". Dominic & Helen

"After 25 years you begin to take things for granted. The Weekend took us back to when we first met". Gary & MJ

"We were at quite a low point. The Weekend turned things around for us. It helped us to re-focus on our relationship and gave us a new start". Alain & Karen

"Recognising that we have to put effort into our relationship if we want it to work. Sitting back and being passive about it does not work". Emmanuel & Grace

Worldwide Marriage Encounter is an experience that helps you listen, share and connect more deeply.

There is no group discussion. It's just about the two of you learning to be the best, most loving and thriving couple you can be.

Even when a marriage is going smoothly, there are always opportunities to make it work better.

Just as our cars, homes and gardens need constant maintenance and attention to avoid potential future problems, so too does our closest relationship.

What happens in a WWME experience?

The WWME experience is typically held over a weekend with the choice of a residential, non-residential or online experience. A Marriage Encounter team will provide new tools, using examples from their own lives, to help you work through common themes we can all relate to, such as:

- Exploring our personality styles
- Appreciating our differences
- Listening in a new way
- Communicating intimately
- Addressing difficult topics
- Discovering God's desire for our marriage
- Continuing the journey

Whilst faith is a powerful part of this process, the focus of the WWME experience is on the ups and downs of married life.

Couples - married, or in a long-term relationship - of any denomination, mixed faith or without religious affiliation, are very welcome.

Thriving together

Remaining strong as a couple provides a stable and loving environment for your children. As your children grow up, being a united force to guide your family, no matter what, is essential.

Then when it's time for them to move on, you can continue growing and thriving in your relationship.

Learn to become the best version of yourself together!
